

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Earth Sunday

April 19, 2026

Peace Lutheran Church

West Seattle, Washington

On this Earth Sunday (Earth Day is April 22) the prophet Isaiah offers an evocative vision of what restoration looks like for the natural world. And our gospel reveals the transformation and renewed hope that are made possible when our eyes are opened to the Risen Christ who journeys with us. The story of Emmaus becomes the pattern of our worship each Lord's day.

We celebrate Holy Communion today. Christ showed on Easter that even death could not separate him from us, so we claim his true presence, fully embodied, in the bread and wine we share this morning.

THANKSGIVING FOR WATERS Water is poured into the font.

P Let us give thanks for the sacred waters of creation.

Creator God, you are the + One who was, who is, and who is to come.

We thank you for the waters of creation:

C Morning dew, falling rain, whirling snow, roaring waves.

P We thank you for the waters that nourish us:

C The Cedar, the Green, and the Duwamish Rivers; Longfellow and Fautleroy Creeks, mountain glaciers, and the waters of the Salish Sea.

P Jesus Christ, you are the faithful witness who accompanies us on our journeys.

We give you thanks for your life-giving death and resurrection.

C We praise you for joining us in joy and sorrow; for being for us the water of life.

P Holy Spirit, you anoint our head with oil and our cup overflows.

C Break down barriers that divide us. Fill us with the breath of peace.

P Holy One, holy Three, we thank you for the gifts and grace of baptism, and for making us a new creation.

C With all the creatures of earth, sea, and sky we give you honor and praise, now and forever. Amen.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God, who calls forth Creation, evokes praise from Creation, and stirs life in Creation.

C Amen.

P Let us confess our sin in the presence of God, Creation, and one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

P Maker of Earth and heaven,

C you are the Source of all that is, but we have failed to honor your good work.
 We do not recognize your presence among us, and our hardened hearts do not hear Creation's cry. We have made your good land a waste land, and have dishonored your image in our neighbors.

P Forgive us, O God,

C for treating Earth's gifts like enemies rather than relatives;
 a collection of objects rather than a community of subjects.

P From your sacred mountain,

C call us again to be stewards of Earth and to join all Creation in songs of praise.

P Rejoice! For the Incarnate Word has come to you. Laying aside all heavenly glory, the Servant of all was obedient unto death to make of you and all the Earth a new Creation.
 Rejoice! For Christ, from whom nothing can separate you, + forgives you all your sins, and summons you to the path of renewal and restoration.

C We hear Christ's call and follow. Thanks be to God!

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P Let us pray. Sovereign of the universe, your first covenant of mercy was with every living creature. When your beloved Son came among us, the waters of the river welcomed him, the heavens opened to greet his arrival, the animals of the wilderness drew near as his companions. With all the world's people, may we who are washed into new life through baptism seek the way of your new creation, the way of justice and care, mercy and peace;
 through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

C Amen.

+ WORD +

FIRST READING: Isaiah 51:1-3

Nancy Hauger

Speaking to God's exiled people, the prophet shares God's vision for Earth as a restored Eden.

- ¹ Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness, you who seek the Lord.
Look to the rock from which you were hewn and to the quarry from which you were dug.
- ² Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah, who bore you, for he was but one when I called him, but I blessed him and made him many.
- ³ For the Lord will comfort Zion; God will comfort all her waste places and will make her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the Lord;
joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song.

L Holy wisdom. Holy word. C Thanks be to God.

PSALM 8 Read in unison

O God, our Sovereign, how majestic is your Name in all the earth!
You have placed your glory above the heavens!
From the lips of infants and children you bring forth words of power and praise, to answer your adversaries and to silence the hostile and vengeful.
When I behind your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars which you set in place—
What is humanity that you should be mindful of us?
Who are we that you should care for us?
You have made us barely less than God, and crowned us with glory and honor.
You have made us responsible for the words of your hands, putting all things at our feet—
All sheep and oxen, yes, even the beasts of the field, the birds of the air, the fish of the sea and whatever swims the paths of the seas.
O God, our Sovereign, how majestic is your Name in all the earth!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Repeat alleluia

P The Holy Gospel according to Luke, the 24th Chapter

C Glory to you, O Lord.

GOSPEL: Luke 24:13-35

The story of Jesus' appearance to two disciples on the road to Emmaus answers the question of how Jesus is to be recognized among us. He is revealed through the scriptures and in the breaking of bread.

¹³ Now on that same day two [disciples] were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, ¹⁴ and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. ¹⁵ While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, ¹⁶ but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. ¹⁷ And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. ¹⁸ Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" ¹⁹ He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, ²⁰ and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. ²¹ But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place.

²² Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, ²³ and when they did not find his body there they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. ²⁴ Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see him."

²⁵ Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! ²⁶ Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" ²⁷ Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

²⁸ As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. ²⁹ But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. ³⁰ When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. ³¹ Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he vanished from their sight. ³² They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?"

³³ That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem, and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. ³⁴ They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" ³⁵ Then they told what had happened on the road and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

OFFERTORY

God, Whose Giving Knows No Ending

TUNE: BEACHSPRING

God whose giving knows no ending from your rich and endless store:
Nature's wonder, Jesus' wisdom, costly cross, grave's shattered door.
Gifted by you we turn to you, offering up ourselves in praise;
Thankful song shall rise forever, gracious donor of our days.

Treasure, too, you have entrusted, gain through pow'rs your grace conferred;
Ours to use for home and kindred, and to spread the gospel word.
Open wide our hands in sharing, as we heed Christ's ageless call,
Healing, teaching, and reclaiming, serving you by loving all.

OFFERTORY PRAYER

A Let us pray. Merciful God,

C accept the fruits of our labor, gathered to give you glory.

You have set a table before us, a glimpse of that great day when we will hunger and thirst no more.

Nourish us with the body and blood of Jesus, that goodness and mercy may follow us and bless the world you love.

In the name of Jesus, Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

ELW pg. 107

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

P ♪ It is indeed right, our duty and our joy...we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

ELW pg. 108

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho -

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

P Holy God, mighty and merciful, your people praise you, saying:
Your mercy endures forever.

C Your mercy endures forever.

P By your promise you bound yourself to Earth and all its creatures, granting them life and calling them to flourish,
setting the sign of your bow in the clouds,
the colors of your love and faithfulness.
Your mercy endures forever.

C Your mercy endures forever.

P By your promise you join us to Jesus, your Beloved, grafting us into your living Vine, and calling us to bear the fruit of your self-giving love.

In the night in which he was handed over to death,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

C Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

P Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:

C This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

P With this bread and cup we remember his life laid down and lifted up as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

C Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

P Send your Spirit upon us and these gifts of bread and wine.
Bless us to be a blessing. Make us a sign of your faithfulness.
Send us to tend and cherish the Earth and to serve the world with mercy and love, through Jesus Christ, now and forever.

C Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER (ecumenical)

P With resurrection joy we are bold to pray:

C Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

P Come to the table of new life. Receive the risen Lord.

C Thanks be to God!

DISTRIBUTION

We commune processionally. Extend your hands to receive bread. A gluten free wafer is also available. Both wine (dark) and grape juice (light) are available in the ceramic cups. Place your empty cup in the box at the end of the front pew on your way back. Children are welcome to receive when their parents believe they are ready, with the support of the pastor. Any who prefer a blessing may cross their hands over their chest as they come forward.

Christ in Our Home and The Word in Season devotionals for April, May, and June are on the counter in the narthex. Please pick on up if you choose.

CHRISTIAN ED/FAITH FORMATION NEWS

LOOKING AHEAD: A special Offering of Letters/Bread for the World Sunday will be held May 3rd. Our final Education Sunday this spring will be May 17th. A special project with THRIVENT is being developed for that Sunday. Please put it on your calendar and help us to finish the year with strength!

WIN COMMUNITY MEETING AT PEACE 4/22 @ 7pm

Building upon the energy and learnings from our February meeting exploring deportation defense of our immigrant neighbors, we have a special guest joining us next week at our Westside Interfaith Network (WIN) Community Meeting. Pastor Katy Lloyd traveled to Minneapolis last January, answering the call for clergy from all over the country to converge upon Minneapolis in the midst of the ICE surge. She will share with us her experience, learnings, awe and profound respect for the resilience of the people resisting ICE in their communities. Please join us. We have much to learn!

QUILT BLESSING SUNDAY IS APRIL 26

Next Sunday, April 26th, we'll be blessing the quilts which Peace Piecers have put together over the past six months. Peace Piecer ministry participants include: Barbara Hillier, Betty Beller, Sarah Killinger, Lisa Simmons, Sharon Clark, Colleen Cooke, Marty Dedrickson, Jacquelyn Nash, and Nancy Kiser. Rev. Daniel Sorensen will serve as guest preacher and presider on Quilt Sunday while Pastor Erik is away.

HOLDEN EVENING PRAYER AROUND THE WORLD APRIL 26

Invite your friends to Holden Evening Prayer Around the World next Sunday, April 26, here at Peace, 7 pm. This year marks the 40th anniversary of Marty Haugen's beloved setting of the traditional Lutheran vespers. With violin, piano, thoughtful readings, and song, we raise our voices together in praise and prayer at the end of the day. Join us!

FAUNTLEROY UCC RECYCLE ROUNDUP! APRIL 25

It's time again to gather together your odd useless electronic pieces, metal scraps and even good items like filing cabinets. Fauntleroy UCC's parking lot will be open for drop-offs on Saturday, April 25 from 9 am to 3pm. Watch for flyer listing wanted items plus no-no's—in April bulletins and emails. Thanks to Fauntleroy's team that offers this opportunity twice a year!

FIRST SUNDAY FOOD FOR OUR NEIGHBORS MAY 3

Two weeks from today is our FIRST SUNDAY FOOD FOR OUR NEIGHBORS when, as part of our offerings, we bring food gifts to our neighbors served through our Little Free Pantry on the patio, the White Center Food Bank, and the food pantry at the every-Saturday Welcome Table in White Center. This month is everything month: quality proteins, nutritious snacks and breakfast items, shelf-stable fruits and vegetables, coffee and tea. Please bring your items to the chancel before the service for a blessing. Thank you!

RECONCILING IN CHRIST AFFIRMATION OF WELCOME

Christ calls us to reconciliation and wholeness in a world that can be filled with alienation and brokenness. In faithfulness to the Gospel and to our Lutheran heritage, we answer Christ's call to be agents of healing and safety, particularly for people who have been marginalized by our society. As a Christian community, we recognize that our congregation is strengthened by diversity, the embrace of equity, and our commitment to anti-racism. We welcome and celebrate the inclusion of those of any race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression into the life and mission of our congregation. We invite all people to join us as we work to better understand the meaning of grace for our lives.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We respectfully acknowledge that we gather on the ancestral homeland of the DUWAMISH PEOPLE. We recognize the DUWAMISH and other SALISH PEOPLES, the FIRST STEWARDS of this land, who have called this region home—and continue to call it home—from time immemorial. We join with them and with all people who see the Earth, its creatures, watersheds, and habitats, as part of an integral whole reflecting our Creator’s intention for wholeness and balance.
